I spoke with Greg. All windows will be delivered on Wednesday at 12. There are 5 windows not here yet. They are for the later orders

Sorry, installing a window

Sorry installing a window

Thank you Andy I appreciate you getting back to me. I tried to call Gary directly but his phone number has been disconnected. Do you have a new number for him? Donnie is having surgery and is not available so I want to be able to work directly with Gary for all of the remaining windows. We don't know when Donnie will be available again.

I'll send
